for Mental Health, Education and Potential Realisation

Wanted Project Co-ordinators for our Early Childhood and Primary Schools Initiatives in Bangalore

The Promise Foundation, India is a charitable trust that has been engaged since 1987 in the development and implementation of children and youth from disadvantaged homes. This announcement is for the Department of Early Childhood and Primary School Programmes. This department critically evaluates pedagogic practices and child development issues to offer interventions for children in low-income families. Our projects are located across South India, and focus on the establishment of vibrant Early Learning Centers. We have a busy annual calendar of training programmes for child care workers and teachers. We require Project Coordinators based in Bangalore who are mature in technical knowledge and young at heart.

The Project will require successful applicants to:

- work along with NGOs and relevant Government departments.
- develop replicable teaching-learning methodologies for children from low-income homes.
- train and monitor a network of teachers and childcare workers.
- document the educational needs and attainments of children in the programme.

Do contact us if you:

- have been trained in Education / Child Development/ Child Psychology/ Social Work.
- are aware of the local educational issues in the pre- and primary school sectors.
- have experience in teacher training.
- have experience with report writing and documentation in English
- have high written and spoken proficiency in Kannada and/or one Indian language
